

Best-selling author, energy expert, foreign correspondent and environmental and political activist, Mike Bond has extensive experience in many areas:

Energy

- Wind Energy: Why it is not environmental, not green, but an environmental disaster.
- Rooftop Solar: How every home and business can have it.
- Politics and Energy: An ugly mix.

Environment

- Climate Change: How oil and energy companies have co-opted the environmental movement.
- Sierra Club: Lost in the woods, and paid off by Big Energy.
- Our Worst Environmental President Ever: Sadly, it's Barack Obama.
- Wolves: Why America needs them.
- Our Vanishing Outdoors: Why we need to protect it.

National Security and Foreign Conflicts

- Afghanistan War: What we did wrong and how we're compounding that now.
- Iraq War: The war that never should have been, what it has done to our nation.
- America's Veterans: Mistreated, ignored, with few options, and what we need to do about it.
- Islamic Terrorism: Why they are winning and our options are getting fewer.

America's Future

- The National Debt: At $16 trillion and growing $1.5 trillion a year, why it endangers us all.
- Jobs: We send them overseas then complain about unemployment.
- Our Politicians Work for Corporations, Not Us: How we can change this and save our nation.
